

NEW WESTSIDERS RESOURCE LIST

Dated: July 2023

To help everyone manage life , NWS has prepared a Resource List with contributions from our members. These names represent local services with whom members have had a good experience. Contact info appears along with the names of members who submitted and recommend these practitioners. We encourage you to touch base with those members if you would like further details. NWS Members who have listed their own personal business services or have member connection will be highlighted. Many thanks to all who've contributed—we look forward to hearing from others. Chris Funkhouser & Sara Woodward

Please be advised that NWS does NOT endorse or promote one service provider over another. Please interview each vendor to protect yourself and ensure they are licensed to perform work in your area.
